occasions mini catalog

January 5–April 30, 2010
dear friends,

I have to be honest. Our Holiday Mini Catalog was so great, I was worried that the mini that followed may not meet your expectations!

Silly me—I should have known better. As I’ve looked through this mini (at least a dozen times already), I have been just as excited! We’ve got a great variety of stamp images and accessories, something for every style and taste and budget.

I could mention several things specifically, but space is limited so I’ll just call out a few. I have to talk about the clear-mount blocks. For years, demonstrators and customers alike have been asking for clear-mount blocks and photopolymer stamps. We’ve tried to meet this request but have never been able to find a polymer product that produces the high-quality images that meet our high expectations.

I’m tickled that we’ve come up with a solution. We’ve decided to offer the clear-mount stamps (wood-block purists like me need not fear—we will continue to offer those as well) to be used with our traditional foam and rubber images. So you can still enjoy our crisp, clean images while needing less storage space!

I’m also excited about the new punch style—again a response to requests for space-saving solutions. Be sure to check that out!

The valentine and Easter kits are great as well! I love it when we can make celebrating special occasions a little easier—and still creative and fun. Those kits are ones that we’ll be using in the Gardner family to make the holidays less stressful.

In that same vein, I always love to see how we coordinate products (images, accessories, colors) together so you can create great-looking projects without having to waste a lot of time figuring out what products go together. This is one of the things that makes Stampin’ Up!* unique—and I’d like to see us doing even more of that.

While our catalogs are our mainstay, our mini catalogs add life and freshness to our lines—I hope you enjoy this one as much as I have!
